

Another side solution could be Go to Documents --> Rockstar Games --> GTA 5 ---> Settings and download link. Can be downloaded from the GTA website At the beginning, you will be asked to select the difficulty level by clicking on the appropriate icon (at the very bottom). The game will then load. If you click on the very first icon, the download of demo videos will begin. They will be short for 5-10 seconds, and then within 15-20 seconds permanent splash screens will appear, which can be changed and viewed. When finished, the screen will reload and the game will begin. Keep in mind that GTA San Andreas has nuances that make this game challenging. First, most of the buildings that are open to you are transport buildings. They can be bought at the Market Square (Mall), as well as in special stores. You can find goods in them, but you can't buy, for example, cars or weapons. Second, they are gems. These are best obtained from a random location and used immediately to purchase items. Now that all the buildings and cars we need have been bought, we must go to GTA Rage -&#x2013; City Long way. We will go there by transport to destroy enemies or look for rare items. If we avoid clashes with the bandits, we can see the schemes of "deepening" the city and its environs. So we will be able to lay out the route of our path in advance, so as not to appear at every corner. You can also turn on the autopilot and move without it. In GTA Raid you will find three types of transport. There are no mini-cars in Gta San Andreas, because the creators believed that mini-maps are a kind of weapon against the crowd. At the beginning of the game you will have one car, but during the first level you will have two more cars. And until the end of pumping (up to level 16) there are only two vehicles. At first, I wanted to buy a mini car -&#x2013; i IGP Torsion -&#x2013; But due to the fact that driving this car is difficult, I will stop here. I want to buy a car that is as close to real world stuff as possible -&#x2013; i IGT Vision -&#x2013; &#x2013; This is a much more comfortable and roomy car. And yes, it accelerates much faster. But I can tell you right away -&#x2013; &#x2013; i GT
